

Selective Mutism Group

- Therapy group for children 5-10 years old with Selective Mutism; including corresponding parent group
- Runs every Spring

What is Selective Mutism (SM)?

SM is a childhood anxiety disorder in which children consistently don't speak in some social situations, but speak comfortably at home or in other situations.

For more information call or email Dr. Christopher Kearney at: 702-895-0183 or chris.kearney@unlv.edu